

12–14 June 2012

LINC

in South Estonia

From 12th–14th June 2012, the LINC conference will be held
in South Estonia.

The theme of the conference will be “Involvement and Voluntary Work”

The three-day programme will include:

- A grand Opening Ceremony in the AHHA Science Centre, Tartu
- Inspiring discussions on rural development
- A challenging national sports programme in Põlva County
- A European buffet in the evening
- A hands-on workshop on voluntary work and study trips complemented by local cultural programmes, including local cuisine
- A Closing and Awards Ceremony

We expect a three-member team from each LEADER activity group to participate in the conference.

Additional information and registration will be available from the end of January at www.info-linc.eu
